

By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,

For dissolving this present Parliament, and declaring the Calling of another.

G E O R G E R.

H E R E A S We have thought fit, by and With the Advice of Our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which now stands prorogued to Tuesday the Fifteenth Day of November next: We do, for that End, publish this Our Royal Proclamation; and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs, of the House of Commons, are discharged from their Meeting, and Attendance, on Tuesday the said Fifteenth Day of November next. And We being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our People, and to have their Advice in Parliament, do hereby make known, to all Our loving Subjects, Our Royal Will and Pleasure to call a New Parliament: And do hereby further declare, That, With the Advice of Our Privy Council, We have, this Day, given Order to Our Chancellor of Great Britain to issue out Writs, in due Form, for calling a New Parliament; which Writs are to bear Teste on Saturday the First Day of October next, and to be returnable on Tuesday the Twenty-ninth Day of November following.

Given at Our Court at St. James's the Thirtieth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, in the Fourteenth Year of Our Reign.

God save the King.
